THE
SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,
Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.
Monday, October 10*th*, 1743. [Numb. 498.]

LONDON, June 18, 1743.

YESTERDAY a great Number of Hands were employ'd to clear the Ditch round the Tower, and a Foundation is laying for a new Wall, on Timber Piles, to the Wharff on the Middle Tower Gate; and a Barrack will be built on the Weſt Side for a Company of Foot Guards, that Part of the Ditch being fill'd up

The Elector Palatine's Troops under the Command of General Zaſtow, quitted the Imperial Army on the 25th, N.S. with the Conſent of the Marſhals Seckendorff and Broglio, and retired into the Dutchy of Newburgh.

They write from Genoa, that they were very apprehenſive there, that the Britiſh Miniſtry would look upon the Vote lately paſs'd to put the Affairs of Corſica entirely into the little Council, as a Contrivance to prevent the Secret of that Iſland's being ſold to Spain from tranſpiring before it is put in Execution.

The ſame Letters ſay, that the Spaniards are making a ſmall Embarkation at Majorca, but with what Deſign could not as yet be aſcertain'd.

June 21. We hear Preparations are actually making for the Departure of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa to Denmark, where ſhe is ſoon to eſpouſe the Prince Royal of that Kingdom.

The Invention of a new Machine Sloop, which has been formerly mention'd as capable of performing a Voyage from Holland to Venice in a ſurprizingly ſhort Space of Time, has been lately finiſhed at Zaandam; but the Mob, either diſliking the Invention, or out of Curioſity to ſee and examine it, crowded on board it in ſuch Numbers, that it ſunk, and all the Springs were put into Diſorder. Of this the Inventor has given a full Account, in a Letter to one of the Magiſtrates of the Town of Delft, aſſuring him, at the ſame Time, that he is far from being diſcouraged by this Misfortune; that he ſhall be quickly able to get his Veſſel on the Stocks again, and put all Things one more in Order.

Two ſmall Spaniſh Veſſels have been lately taken by our Cruizers in the Mediterranean, and carried into Port Mahon; and a French Ship, with Money on board to pay the Spaniſh Troops in Italy, was alſo taken by a Britiſh Man of War, and carried to the Iſland of Hieres.

We hear that Admiral Mathews will ſpeedily go on ſome important Expedition, to which Purpoſe a Number of Land Forces from the Garriſons in the Mediterranean are to join him.

June 28. This Morning arrived a Mail from Flanders, by which there are Letters from Hanau of the 20th Inſt. O.S. (Four Days after the Battle of Dettingen) which ſay, that the Body of French which paſſed the Mayne actually conſiſted of 40,000 Men, and the Engliſh and Auſtrians that engaged them did not exceed 28,000, and notwithſtanding the great Superiority of the French, they were obliged to retire with the Loſs of 6000 kill'd on the Field of Battle, and in the Retreat two Battalions of the French were drove into the Mayne and drowned. The Engliſh took a very great Number of Priſoners, among which are upwards of 100 Officers of the French King's Houſhold Troops; we likewiſe took twelve Pieces of Cannon, and ſeveral Colours.

June 30. Yeſterday 36 Serjeants, and the ſame Number of Drums, belonging to the Foot Guards, were ſent a Recruiting.

We hear, by private Letters from France, that they have made great Rejoicing all over Paris, (A la mode de Lewis the XIV. when he had loſt a Battle) for the Victory obtained by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's Troops over the Army of the Allies at Dettingen.

We hear from Paris, that Abbe D—— F—— has been ſent to the Baſtile, for writing a Libellous Hiſtory of the preſent War, and entitled The Lamentations of Broglio and Noailles

July 2. By private Letters which came by Yeſterday's Holland Mail we are inform'd, that a Peace is on the Point of being concluded between his Imperial Majeſty and the Queen of Hungary, the former having actually diſperſed circular Letters to the States of the Empire, importing that his Troops were already ſeparated from thoſe of France, and deſiring them to do the ſame.

There is a private Letter from an Officer of Diſtinction, dated Hanau, July 3, N. S. with theſe remarkable Words: 'This Morning 500 French Deſerters arrived in our 'Camp, who aſſure, that their Army had in the late Action 'of Dettingen between 6 and 7000 Men killed, drowned, 'or taken Priſoners.'

July 5. The Army of Marſhal Noailles conſiſts of Infantry 87 Battalions, Cavalry 103 Squadrons, Dragoons 20 Squadrons, Huſſars 12 Squadrons. In all, 87 Battallions, 135 Squadrons; that is, nearly, 52,000 Foot, and 15,000 Horſe.

Marſhal Broglio's Troops, including the Reinforcement ſent him, make 78 Battalions, and 36 Squadrons; but all his Corps are ſo feeble, that they do not exceed 28,000 at moſt.

We hear by the laſt Expreſs, that the Right Hon. the Earl of Albemarle was ſent at the Head of eight of Squadrons to take a Poſt of Conſequence from the French; and that the Allies are determin'd to give them Battle before the two Armies join.

We hear that a General Thankſgiving will be order'd by the Lords of the Regency for the late Victory at Dettingen.

July 7. From all Parts of England we have Accounts of the Rejoicings made for the Glorious Victory obtain'd by his Majeſty over the French Army at Dettingen; —— an Army greatly ſuperior in Number, commanded by a General of whom they had the greateſt Opinion, accompanied by the Princes of the Blood, aſſiſted by their beſt Officers, and compoſed of the Flower of their Forces

Private Letters from Paris ſay, that Orders had been ſent to Marſhal Noailles to withdraw his Army from the Mayne into the Neighbourhood of Heidelberg

We hear that one of our Governors abroad will ſoon be recall'd.

July 9. The Auſtrian Army under Prince Charles of Lorrain is advanced as far as the Neckar, which River they were to paſs on the 16th, N. S. It conſiſts of 65,000 Men, exclusive of the Detachment of the 12,000 Huſſars and Light Armed Troops, which have already joined the Auxiliaries on the Mayne.

M. Broglio began to entrench himſelf in the Neighbourhood of Wimſen, where he thought himſelf pretty ſafe; but was obliged in the Night, between the 6th and 7th, to decamp with the utmoſt Precipitation, the Auſtrian Huſſars having fallen into ſome of his Quarters, killed abundance of Men, and carried off ſeveral Horſes

The Field Marſhal Count de Traun having deſired to lay down his Employment, her Hungarian Majeſty hath been pleaſed to declare Prince Lobkowitz Governor General of Milan, and Commander in Chief of her Majeſty's Forces in Italy.

At

Private Letters from Vienna say, that they have Advice there from Constantinople, that the Schah Nadir had attack'd, and entirely defeated the Turkish Army.

We hear from Edinburgh, that upon the News of the late Victory, the great Guns of the Castle were discharged, and answered by the Regiment on Duty in the Cannongate; the City Bells were rung, Bonfires erected in several Parts of the City; and in short, nothing hinder'd the Joy from being compleat, but the Death of General Clayton, which, as it is a publick Loss, is there universally lamented. He was possess'd of all those amiable Virtues, which can adorn a publick or private Character, and which rendered him beloved by his Acquaintance, adored by his Inferiors, and esteem'd by all. In him the Army has lost a good General, the King a faithful Subject, and his Country a firm Friend and Patriot. As his Life was happy, so his Death was glorious; for he fell, when he was very old, fighting for the Peace of Europe, and the Liberties of Mankind.

The Gods allow to many; but to die
With equal Lustre, is a Blessing Heav'n
Selects from all the choicest Boons of Fate,
And with a sparing Hand on few bestows.

Paris, June 29. The Regiments that were in Lorrain, Frenche Compte, &c. receiv'd Orders to march to Provence, as well as the Gendarmerie who were to have serv'd upon the Rhine. Mr. Maillebois will have the Command of these Troops, and the Reason of their marching them this Way is said to be this, that the English Fleet in the Mediterranean is known to have on board them 12 or 15,000 Land Troops, which, on the first News of Hostilities being begun on the Rhine, were to make a Descent on Provence.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 3.

We have Advice from Virginia, that my Lord Bauff, Commander of his Majesty's Ship Hastings, has taken a very rich Prize and carried her into that Place; she was a French Palacra, laden with Cochineal and other rich Commodities, which, with 56 Chests of Silver, (each containing 3000 Dollars) and 2 Bags of Gold, containing about 6000 l. makes her valued at 50,000 l. Sterling. This noble Gentleman soon after his Arrival in Virginia, sail'd to convoy some outward bound Vessels off that Coast, and parting with with them, met with a Spanish Privateer belonging to St. Domingo, of 12 Carriage and 16 Swivel Guns, and 70 Men, which he took, and also carried into Virginia. He us'd the Spanish Prisoners with the greatest Clemency, neither stripping nor plundering any of them, on Account of the good Usage one Capt. Finley had met with from them, who was taken but a few Days before Lord Bauff came up with the Privateer.

In North-Carolina a terrible Storm was felt on the 31st of August, which has blown up many Trees by the Roots, much incommoded the Road, rais'd the Rivers to a prodigious highth, and damag'd many Wharffs, &c.

In our last we omitted to mention that the Pasillion Sloop, commanded by Capt. Lightwood, was again sail'd to Havana, with 55 Spanish Prisoners, (being all that remain'd here of those lately belonging to the Spanish Privateer taken on the 16th of July last, by Capt. Mark Anderson) to be exchang'd for the English Prisoners still remaining in that Place.
